Why Rabbits Have Long Ears and a Short Tail
Long, long ago Rabbit was graced with a long bushy tail. Being vain, every time he saw his friend Fox, he would wave his big bushy tail at Fox and brag that he had a better tail.

An Unseen Hero
August 19, 1972, was one of the happiest days of my life. It was also one of the saddest days. What kind of day can be both happy and sad? It was the day that my son, Robert, came home from the Vietnam War.

11. Then choose the Assessment Actions button and select Assign to Students.

12. An overlay will open. Choose Preview Online Delivery to see how this test will appear to students when administered online.

A screenshot of a configuration page for an assessment. It has several sections: 1. 'Course or grade:' with a dropdown menu. 2. 'Students:' with a list of schools (Amplify Beacon District demo, Cesium High School, Iodine Middle School, Tellurium Middle School, Tin Elementary School, Xenon High School). 3. 'Test administration window:' with 'Start' and 'End' date/time pickers. 4. 'Make available online?' with a link 'Preview online delivery' (highlighted with a red arrow) and three radio button options. 5. 'What should students see after they finish their online test?' with four radio button options.

13. A new tab will open in your browser and the student assessment will display. Explore the assessment and close the browser tab to end the preview.

A screenshot of a student assessment interface. At the top, it says 'English Language Arts - 2014-2015 CC ELA/R: Grade 5 Assessment 1'. Below this is a progress bar with 14 numbered tabs. The first tab is active. The main content area shows a story titled 'The Great Ball Game: A Muskogee Tale' with six numbered paragraphs. To the right of the story are two question boxes. Question 1 asks to 'Summarize the text, including the conflict, key events, and resolution. Remember to keep it brief and write your summary in your own words.' Question 2 asks to 'Name TWO ways Bat tries to join one of the teams.' Both questions have a 'Type in the Box:' label and a text input area.

14. To learn more about blueprints, assessments and fixed form content, select the username in the upper right hand corner of Assessment Studio. Then choose Support.

15. You will now see a library of videos that cover all topics related to blueprint and assessment creation. The FAQ tab includes more videos on frequently asked questions.
